

Walker's Point Center for the Arts Día de los Muertos Exhibition

Exhibition Date: October 21 – November 19, 2016

Tour and Educational Workshop (disponible en español)

About the Exhibition

Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) is a celebration honoring loved ones who have passed and a time to reflect on those who are still with us. Colorful ofrendas (offerings/altars) honor the dead and welcome their returning souls during the holiday. These ofrendas are decorated with traditional motifs, as well as flowers, food and personal items that reflect the life of the deceased.

About the Workshop

This three-part workshop consists of a video presentation, gallery tour and hands-on Día related art making. Each session aims to introduce students to this festive and meaningful celebration, and inspire students to think about the ways they honor their loved ones who are no longer with them.

Workshop dates: Monday–Friday, October 24 – November 18, 2016

Cost & Accommodation

- ✧ $8 per student (free for teachers/chaperones).
- ✧ All age groups, including K–12, college, educators.
- ✧ Each workshop can accommodate up to 60 students.
- ✧ Accommodations can be made for special needs or disabled students.
